NOT A CYCLONE

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The account lately published in the Bulletin respecting the altercation that took place last Saturday night between H. Cannon and Olaf Osa has created the impression that a fist encounter took place, which is very misleading and therefore likely to reflect unfavorably on me, owing to the position which I have held as a local officer in the Salvation Army for the last eight years. Had I allowed myself to engage in a fight, the case would not have been brought before the court, since I can both give and take my medicine without complaint. But a cowardly, unprovoked assault and battery on a man over fifty years of age, in his own home, without an opportunity of defending himself is a very poor dramatic imitation of the famous charge of the Light Brigade, and so far as a second cyclone is concerned, why the only part of the performance that resembled a cyclone was when the athlete flew out of my room clearing a flight of six steps without touching them, into the arms of a policeman. The above can be testified to by no less than five eye witnesses. Hoping that you will do me the justice of inserting the above and remove any stigma that may rest on my name, I remain

Respectfully yours,

H. CANNON.

GOVERNOR ON KAUAI

Governor Carter and party, consisting of Secretary Atkinson, J. W. Pratt, Land Commissioner, and Ralph D. Hosmer, reached Nawiliwili, Kauai, early last Wednesday morning in the steamer W. G. Hall. The party was greeted with band music although the hour was 2 a. m. and on shore they found a reception committee composed of Messrs. W. H. Rice, A. S. Wilcox, Rev. Hans Isenberg, Sheriff J. H. Coney and Judge Kahale. Carriages were taken to the residence of W. H. Rice, where, after greetings and hot coffee, all went to bed.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday morning breakfast was served at the Rice residence to the Governor's party and the reception committee started for Koloa. The party reached Koloa at 11 o'clock a. m., where great preparations had been made to welcome them. Accompanying the Governor were: Messrs. Rice, A. S. Wilcox, Isenberg, Coney, McBryde and Kahale. The weather was all that could be desired and the residents of Koloa turned out in full force to do honor to the head of our Territorial Government. On arrival at Koloa the Governor and party proceeded to the residence of P. McLane, where he was entertained at a grand public luncheon given in the grounds of the McLane homestead, where a spacious inn had been erected and beautifully decorated with bunting and palms, and tables were provided for over four hundred people. The guests sat down at the table at 2 p. m. and during the luncheon the following gentlemen made speeches of welcome to the Governor and party: Mr. Randall, P. McLane, M. A. Rego.

Secretary Atkinson in a pleasant manner thanked one and all for the cordial reception received at the hands of the residents of Koloa. The Governor then responded to the many toasts and greetings of the day, and thanked one and all for the cordial reception he had received. After the luncheon, the Governor held a reception and was kept very busy shaking the many hands and receiving the many expressions of welcome.

During the time the guests were at the table the Koloa Catholic Band, under the able leadership of Mr. L. Mitchell, dispersed a choice selection of music, which was fully enjoyed by all. After the reception coffee was served to the many guests in the parlors of the McLane residence, after which the Governor and party drove off amid cheers and cries of All Hail to the Governor, en route to Elele, via the Koloa marine drive, to Lualaba, where the party boarded a special train in waiting and proceeded over the new track of the McBryde Sugar Co. The run was much enjoyed by all.

At McBryde, Wm. Stodart, the manager, extended every courtesy. The mill and plantation were generally inspected. A reception was given the Governor at the home of Walter McBryde in the evening. Mrs. Kinney of Honolulu assisting in the entertainment.

Thursday morning Governor Carter inspected the partially completed new bridge. This was followed by a reception at the Hanalei school. The Governor was given a rousing welcome. The school rooms had been prettily decorated by H. H. Brodie, Mrs. Bickford and the Misses Barnes, teachers in the school. Governor Carter and Secretary Atkinson each made addresses which were greeted with applause.

At Makawili there was another greeting and more speeches.

At Waimea the party was greeted by a committee composed of W. O. Crowell, Judge Kapuni, Senator Nakapahu and M. I. Pereira. During the afternoon Governor Carter held conferences and inspected Government roads. In the evening a luau at Waimea was participated in by a large crowd, where again speeches were made. At 8 o'clock, a dance was given in Waimea Hall.

Leaving in the W. G. Hall, the party arrived at Hanalei, where a reception and luau were tendered. The Hanalei reception committee was composed of S. Kaili, C. H. Willis, E. Kuapuh, Joseph Gardner, N. Kabeleki and C. B. Makee. The party rode to Kilauea Saturday, spending Saturday night at the home of Mr. Fairchild.

HILO'S BASEBALL

Hilo, May 5.—Hilo baseball enthusiasts were treated to a very poor exhibition of the national game last Sunday afternoon when the Beamer Specials crossed bats with the H. R. R. team. With the exception of three innings neither team played the baseball which they are capable of playing and which has marked the games of both teams in the past. A good crowd turned out and the grand stand was well patronized but there was still room for more. Following is the score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
Bm's	4	3	3	1	0	0	0	3	0	1—16
H. R. R.	0	6	1	1	6	0	0	1	0	0—15

Base on balls—Off Moorehead, 5; Williams, 2; Spalding, 2.

Struck out—By Moorehead, 5; Williams, 3; Spalding, 3.

Umpires—Alden and Richard Lyman.

Arrangements are being made for a game to be played next Sunday at 3 p. m. between the Onomea team and the team of the Waialae Social Club.

President, H. Vears; captain of court, W. I. Madeira; secretary and treasurer, T. Guard. The above officers with E. D. Baldwin and A. Lindsay, constitute the executive committee. There was a meeting of the executive committee Tuesday evening to arrange for a tournament to take place in May.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Hilo, May 5.—The gossip was rewarded and a prediction fulfilled when the last edition of the "Argonaut" to reach Hilo was read. The engagement was there reported of Miss Alice Hawhurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawhurst of Alameda, to Ronald Clark Kennedy of Hilo, Hawaii. The wedding will take place some time in May. Miss Hawhurst is a sister of Robert Hawhurst, the chief engineer of the Kohala-Hilo Railway Co. She visited the islands last summer.
